

I don't want the Do-Not-Call List weakened, if anything it could be strengthened. I don't want to be pestered by unwanted solicitations from any company; especially & including the banking system. They are among the worst. They just don't quit. There's too much junk mail & phone calls now, even if you're on the do not call & mailing lists.